Anansi and Company Retold is a vibrant collection of Jamaican folktales that captures the spirit of the Caribbean island nation. These stories have been passed down through generations, enchanting children and adults alike with their humor, wisdom, and timeless appeal.

In this enchanting collection, Anansi the spider and his mischievous crew come to life, taking readers on a journey through a world of talking animals, magical transformations, and outwitting adversaries. Children will be captivated by the antics of Anansi, the cunning spider who uses his wits to overcome challenges and achieve his goals.

Anansi and Company Retold is not only a collection of entertaining stories but also a valuable resource for preserving and promoting Jamaican culture. These tales offer a glimpse into the rich traditions and beliefs of the Jamaican people, fostering a sense of pride and cultural identity among young readers.

With its vivid storytelling, engaging characters, and important cultural lessons, Anansi and Company Retold is a must-have for any child's bookshelf.
