A grand estate

Eaton Hall is a sprawling estate that sits on over 1,000 acres of land. The hall itself is a three-story mansion that features over 50 rooms. The rooms are decorated in a variety of styles, from Victorian to Edwardian, and feature many original furnishings and artifacts. Visitors can explore the grand hall, the drawing room, the library, the dining room, and many other rooms.

Beautiful gardens

In addition to the grand hall, Eaton Hall is also home to beautiful gardens. The gardens were designed by Frederick Law Olmsted, the same landscape architect who designed Central Park in New York City. The gardens feature a variety of plants and flowers, including roses, lilies, and azaleas. Visitors can stroll through the gardens, relax by the fountain, or enjoy a picnic on the lawn.

A fascinating history

The Eaton family was one of Canada's most prominent families. Timothy Eaton, the patriarch of the family, founded the Eaton's department store chain in 1869. The Eaton family lived in Eaton Hall for over 50 years, and they hosted many notable guests, including the Duke and Duchess of York (later King George VI and Queen Elizabeth). In 1972, the Eaton family donated Eaton Hall to the Ontario Heritage Foundation. The hall was restored and opened to the public in 1983.

Visiting Eaton Hall

Eaton Hall is open to the public for tours from May to October. Visitors can choose from a variety of tours, including a self-guided tour, a guided tour, and a special behind-the-scenes tour. Visitors can also explore the gardens, relax by the fountain, or enjoy a picnic on the lawn.

Eaton Hall is a must-see for anyone visiting King Township. The hall is a beautiful and historic building, and the gardens are a sight to behold. Visitors will enjoy learning about the fascinating history of the Eaton family and exploring the many rooms of the hall.

Getting there
