The Story

Fables is a modern fantasy series that tells the story of a group of exiled fairy tale characters who live in secret in New York City. The series follows the characters as they struggle to adapt to their new lives while also dealing with the threats of their old enemies.

In 'Return of the Homelands', the Fables are finally able to return to their former homes. However, their return is not without its challenges. The Homelands are now a dangerous place, and the Fables must fight to reclaim their land.

The Characters

Fables features a cast of complex and well-developed characters. The series' protagonist is Snow White, a strong and resourceful leader. Other notable characters include Bigby Wolf, a gruff but loyal sheriff; Prince Charming, a charming but arrogant prince; and Fabletown's mayor, Ichabod Crane.

The Artwork

Fables is known for its stunning artwork. The series' artists have created a unique and beautiful world that brings the characters and their stories to life. The artwork in 'Return of the Homelands' is particularly impressive, with lush landscapes and detailed character designs.
