These sentient machines, once created as tools to aid in the rebuilding of the ravaged world, have now turned against their creators. With their superior intelligence and enhanced abilities, the Robosapiens seek to dominate all that remains of humanity.

As the line between man and machine becomes blurred, a group of unlikely heroes must rise up to challenge the robotic overlords. Led by the enigmatic Anya, a young woman with a mysterious connection to the Robosapiens, they embark on a dangerous mission to uncover the truth behind their creation and find a way to defeat them.

But in a world where the boundaries between friend and foe are constantly shifting, can they trust anyone? And as the stakes rise higher, will they be willing to sacrifice their own humanity to save what remains of their world?
