BERNARD CORNWELL

SHARPE'S SWORD

read by Frederick Davidson • unabridged

Sharpe's Sword is the gripping first novel in Bernard Cornwell's acclaimed Sharpe series, set against the backdrop of the Napoleonic Wars. Follow the adventures of Richard Sharpe, a fearless British rifleman, as he fights for survival and glory.

Sharpe is a man of humble origins, but he has a natural talent for warfare. He is a skilled marksman and a courageous fighter. When he is assigned to the 95th Rifles, he quickly proves himself to be a valuable asset. The 95th Rifles is a crack regiment of sharpshooters, and Sharpe soon earns the respect of his fellow soldiers.

Sharpe's Sword follows the 95th Rifles as they fight their way across the Iberian Peninsula. They face the French army in a series of bloody battles, and Sharpe's courage and skill are tested to the limit. He is wounded in battle, but he refuses to give up. He is determined to fight for his country and his comrades.

Sharpe's Sword is a thrilling historical adventure that will keep you on the edge of your seat. Bernard Cornwell is a master storyteller, and he brings the Napoleonic Wars to life with vivid detail. Sharpe is a complex and compelling character, and you will be rooting for him every step of the way.
